

DIMITRIOS THEOCHARIS

Brief Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Dimitrios Theoharis is an Education Consultant in Mathematics, based at the Directorate Secondary Education of Trikala and areas of scientific responsibility including the Regional Units of Trikala and Karditsa. He received the BSc from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece. He was awarded a MSc and a MED from the Hellenic Open University, Greece (MSc "Specialization in Information Systems" and Med "Education Studies"). He earned a PhD from the University of Thessaly with a PhD thesis topic: "The Effect of Power and Leadership on Verbal Aggression. Application of Social Network Analysis in Schools, Physical Education Departments, and Sports Enterprises". He holds a certificate of excellent knowledge of English (C2 – proficiency). He has 25 years of teaching experience as a Mathematics teacher in Secondary Education. He has published peer reviewed articles in international and Greek scientific journals and has presented numerous papers at international conferences. He has published books focusing on Leadership, Mathematics, Pedagogy and New Technologies. Research interests: Pedagogy, New Technologies, Social Networks in system, Verbal Aggression.